Description

A great opportunity to rent this very versatile building previously used as a C2 care home with possibilities to operate as a nursery or state school under 56 day prior approval notices. St Marys was constructed in the late eighties for assisted living however this building is not suitable for ever increasing needs of the older population but lends itself well to alternative uses

Location

The Glebefield is located just off Amhurst Hill in Dunton Green with its close proximity to Sevenoaks station and its local shops and services
